THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE ~ ALL ARE WELCOME HERE !

Even as the world seeks to judge or divide us according to our economic, racial and ethnic groups, ages, gender, abilities, preferences, politics and theological positions, we believe that there should be no such division.

Our congregation is strengthened through difference and diversity, and in the name of our Lord, we welcome all who come seeking refuge and healing from condemnation, prejudice and discrimination.

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

CORPORATE PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God, we confess that we have longed too much for the comforts of this world. We have loved the gifts more than the giver. In your mercy, help us to see that all the things we pine for are shadows, but you are substance; that they are quicksands, but you are mountain; that they are shifting, but you are anchor.

We plead your forgiveness on the merits of Jesus Christ. Accept his worthiness for our unworthiness, his sinlessness for our transgressions, his fullness for our emptiness, his glory for our shame, his righteousness for our dead works, his death for our life. We pray in Jesus name you now hear our personal confessions...

Apostles Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

New Year

John Rutter

*Turn your eyes to the light;
Cast away the works of darkness, let them go:
Turn your eyes to the light.*

*Turn your face to the sun;
Feel the warmth, the hope of new beginnings
with each new year.*

*The light was always there, if we could but see it;
And warmth was in the air, if we'd known how to feel.*

*Turn your eyes to the lights, turn your face to the sun;
New light, new hope, new year,
new light, new hope, new year. New year.*

*Turn your ears to the sound;
Somewhere near a voice is calling:
Hear the news, Turn your ears to the sound.*

*Turn your heart to the love;
Christ is come to bring the world new life,
to bring new life.*

*The voice is always there, if the world will hear it;
And love is always there, if you search in your heart.*

*Turn your ears to the sound, Turn your heart to the love:
New life, new love, new year,
New life, and love, and light, and hope,
this good New Year, New Year, New Year, New Year.*

*THE CHARGE AND DISMISSAL

Pastor: Now may the blessing of God rest on our heads, and the truth of God set us free from all dangers, real and perceived; so that in our labor and in our leisure, in our rising up and our sitting down, in hours of joy or in days of sorrow, we shall with gladness of heart commend our lives wholly unto Him who keeps us from falling. IN MEMORIAM

Beverly A. Antis

Born ~ November 10, 1948

Joined the Church Triumphant ~ January 7, 2018

Beverly Ann Antis died peacefully on Sunday, January 7, 2018 after a valiant six-month fight with pancreatic cancer. She is survived by one Goddaughter, many friends, and the thousands of lives she touched during her musical careers. She was born in Meadville, PA on November 10, 1948. She was preceded in death by her Mother Myrtle I. (Fosnaught) Antis and her father Edward Antis.

Beverly only had two job interviews over her long career and was successfully hired at each one. She interviewed for the Butler Area School District during her senior year at Westminster College in 1970 and began a 35-year career as an elementary choral music teacher. She worked in the Bon Aire, Clearfield, McQuistion and Emily Brittain Elementary Schools.

Later in her public school career, she was also the musical director and rehearsal accompanist for over ten years with the high school musicals. Outside of school she was very active with Musical Theater Guild, Butler Symphony, and Butler Little Theater. Many people will recall that Beverly was the miracle worker behind the seating chart at Butler Little Theater. She efficiently accommodated personal requests and made it all “fit.”

Beverly was also quite adept at mathematics and had a high level of computer skills. She taught basic computer classes in the community and also trained many administrative assistants in proper formatting and various tricks of the trade.

After her retirement from the Butler Area School District, Beverly attended her second interview and was hired as the staff accompanist in the music department (Swope) at Slippery Rock University. She worked there for the last ten years, up to the time of her death. She specialized in “collaborative” piano and played for all the choirs, many ensembles, performance hours, juries, and recitals. Although she was a piano/voice major at Westminster College, she said that the repertoire she learned “in retirement” was the most challenging and oftentimes the most fun.

She was known as the accompanist who could read the conductor’s mind and help interpret for the student the easiest way to correct, learn or perform music at a level many did not think they could achieve. She was fond of saying to those she worked with, “counting is a fine art.”

Prior to her college and professional success, Beverly began her musical journey at the age of five in her hometown Lutheran Church choir. She said this choral experience shaped her life choices and her ability to work professionally, respectfully and fairly with a volunteer choir. Beverly was a “church musician” for fifty years. She was the Music Director for Covenant Presbyterian Church for the last 12 years. She delighted in bringing chant, beautiful a Capella pieces, and of course music from her friend and liturgical composer, Dr. Robert Lau.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Slippery Rock University, Music Department, Swope Hall, Slippery Rock, PA 16057.
